ROMANIA –
VOIVODENI self-help

Dear Friends and Supporters,

It is common practice in Romania to slaughter the family pig before Christmas, providing the family with meat for a long time. Two families (one with four children, one with five) in Voivodeni who could not afford a pig turned to SB-Foundation for help. A young family with a newborn lives with the in-laws. They pleaded for help so they could finish building their own house. One man wished to buy two cows. Thanks to the friends of SB-Foundation, it was possible to help all of them. See how happy they all are! What joy to be able to help them! Our contact person sent the pictures.

SB-Foundation and the Board, Arne, Elisabeth, Gloria, Ivar, Lena, Roger, thank you warmly for your donations.
