The School for Blind
Children

Dear Friends and Supporters,

At the School for Blind Children in Cooch Behar much happens at the end of the Fall semester. The students get their grades, and then they celebrate Christmas before returning home to their families. This year the suspense was high. Raj's wife Svetlana tells us that it has been a difficult year financially and that the School did not know if it could afford Christmas presents for the children. But extra funds for Christmas arrived both from SB-Foundation and others, and the children each received a jacket, shampoo, and deodorant.

The joy among the students was great as they compared sizes of their jackets, talked, and in other ways expressed their happiness.

A Warm thank you and Happy New Year
from both The School for Blind Children and SB Foundation
via us in the Board,

Arne, Elisabeth, Gloria, Ivar, Lena, Roger
