ROMANIA
Voivodeni – Self-help projects

Dear Friends and Supporters,

The two families' previous home

Stairs to the new room

Denes Csaba, priest in Voivodeni, tells the story of two families with Romani origin – in total twelve people – who all live in one and the same room. One of the fathers of these families, Adrian Szabo, has a wife and three children. The other, Iosif Felei, also has a wife and three children. In addition, the Felei family also cares for two children who were abandoned by their mother when their father died. Denes says that the families' situation is deplorable. Their wish was to build an addition to the house so that each family could have its own room.

SB Foundation was able to provide funds and the construction has now started.

A barn where eleven families stored hay and other feed for their cattle burnt to the ground. SB Foundation has subsidized the purchase of new feed for the families' animals.

A man has applied for funds to build a protective shelter for the corn he grows, and with grants from SB Foundation, he has been able to construct it. Each of SB Foundation's self-help projects is different but they all serve an important purpose.

A warm thank you to Petrus och Augusta Hedlunds Stiftelse, Paul Åkerlund Byggprojekt AB and all private individuals who have supported these self-help projects.

Greetings from SB Foundation and us on the Board, Arne, Elisabeth, Gloria, Ivar, Lena, Roger
