INDIA Tributes at the
School for the Blind's 60th
Anniversary

Dear Friends and Supporters,

Raj Chhetri welcomed everyone to the School for the Blind's 60th anniversary celebration, after which various festive activities followed.

The students at the School for the Blind love to perform. They play music, sing, dance, act in skits, and recite from the stage. This time was no exception – they performed beautifully. It was wonderful to see them doing it with such joy and admirable that they had the courage to perform in front of an audience, a valuable experience for growth and development.

With a little help from Svetlana and Raj, three of the youngest children cut the cake. Yulia distributed a blue toy dog to each child from Handelsbanken's Fadderbarnsfond (a not-for-profit Children's Fund that collects donations to improve that collects donations to improve the lot of needy children).

Lena, the chair of SB Foundation, gave a speech, expressing gratitude to the School for the Blind's founder, former and current prin-cipals, board members, and all staff for their excellent and reliable collaboration, as well as for their loving care of each student. The participants from the Foundation intro-duced themselves, and the Foundation presented an anniver-sary gift of 1,000 USD, along with a children's guitar and three ukuleles to support the students' musical activities and learning.

Once again, SB Foundation extends its heartfelt congratulations via Arne, Elisabeth, Gloria, Lena, and Roger
